Auditors	$25	$35

Weather permitting - that means no thunder or lightning -rain is permissible.

Inclement weather - Seminar will be held in Rooms 1 and 2 with crating in Room 3.

The first hour of the seminar will be an introduction to field work. Such topics as the use of bumpers, wingers, the electric collar, and types of birds will be discussed as well as clubs where you can practice and/or join. The obedience skills of Come, Sit, Hold, and Heel are important and will be worked on as necessary and integrated into the seminar. Ducks and bumpers will be used for retrieving.

Sue Gehrke is a superb teacher and is well known to those who participate in obedience and field work. She has put multiple OTCH's and Field Titles on her dogs. One of her Labs, Splash, was the second lab in the country to have the OTCH/Master Hunter title. Splash also qualified for and entered the National Master Hunter Competition.
